

Shop Front Theatre

ARCHIVE 2009 – 2022

A collection of shorter memories...

Working with Julia and being directed by Chris in Far From The Sea. Then going off on tour...good times! And more recently using The Shopfront to R&D our new show, One Kiss.

Well done Theatre Absolute for sustaining this important space for so long and creating some great work.

I took part in City Voices at Shop Front Theatre, it was very supportive and encouraging. Happy memories writing pieces, reading them out, gaining invaluable feedback, a great opportunity run by helpful and encouraging souls.

I did a series of City Voices workshops at Shop Front Theatre and we worked on a variety of pieces, from poems to short stories, but my favourite was a play we came up with as a group about a 'double agent' working at two rival grocery stores and falling in love with Brenda the bun lady. Everything about it was so much fun, from the brainstorming to the concept and the presentation. Never forgot it – I hope the play gets made someday. I'm down for that!
